My dear S..

Yesterday Mr Chenkala Rao sent me with an introductory letter Mr Allade Mahadeva Sastry Bahadur for selected for collecting a running statement in SS Mr Chenkala Rao says you have sanctioned a salary of Rs 125 for him and he

[illegible] me for Completion of [illegible] for [illegible]

[illegible] 1891 [illegible] Dept letter [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] he passes a sanctioned his employment from the 16th instant I beg you will kindly send me orders He wants a peon at once I think a peon may be given He will work for the present in my office In a few days separate budget estimates for his establishment will be submitted by Mr Chentsalta Rao & myself He will want copyists and the services of a good Pandit I have handed over to him the catalogue sent in MSS I have collected

I have informed Dr Bhandarkar & Mr Telang who recommended Mr Pathak for the post that the place has been filled up

I beg you will kindly instruct me to notify the appointment in the Gazette of Mr Mahadeva Sastry I would propose to call him 'Curator of the Sanskrit Library' or if you prefer it 'Curator of the Oriental Library as the library may also contain Kanarese MSS. The Library will of course be located in the Public Museum at Mysore

Mr. Anantasivamy Rao informed me that you would prefer to have all educational statements on foolscap paper. I will follow your instructions hereafter. In the mean while I beg you will kindly let the papers now before you lie over, as I have to come to Mysore about the 20th. It would be well if you would kindly dispose of them then. I would be able to represent my views orally to you.

Believe me

Yours sincerely

My dear Sir

The bearer is A. Mahadeva Sastry who is to see the Supdt of the Oriental Manuscripts of our Province. Please in communication with the Dewan arrange for the satisfactory of his appointment from this date. His salary sanctioned by the Dewan is Rs 125 per mensem, which I suppose can be met from your Budget.

I beg you will also peruse over him, all the Catalogues of books & publications we have obtained & allot him a place in the office where he conduct his business.

For the present I hope you will also be able to place a pen at his disposal & of course you will give him the Stationery required.

He will be under your orders, & after he has gone through the Catalogues we shall meet & consider how to proceed with the work. The ambition

is there here in Mysore a collection of all Sanscrit works of importance available in any part of India, & to publish such of them as are interesting — The difficulty is in finding out where they are, & what they are, & it is this which Mahadeva Sastry is expected to do — Is Mr Rices Catalogue of the books available in Provinces complete? If not, Sastry will have to visit several parts of the Provinces & make the Catalogues perfect. The present Catalogue of the books in Maharaja's Saraswati Vilas is not also properly prepared & requires careful revision. All these points we can consider when we meet. Mahadeva Sastri may also be allowed to visit our Sanscrit schools, & suggest improvements. Whether he is not a portent of the Legislature duly

Yours very truly
